WHITMAN-HANSON REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL

Franklin Street Whitman, Massachusetts 02382

781-447-7020

A new day dawns and the sun brings light to the Whitman-Hanson soccer field.

Senior Class Officers: Jessica Kinch, President; Kristin O'Reilly, Treasurer; Paul Skarinka, Secretary; and Michael McKenzie, Vice-President.

Night and Day

The Seniors of 1998 much resemble the stages of each day. At first glance, as freshmen and sophomores, they were like the dawn, unsure of what the sky would hold for them. Upon closer inspection, as juniors and now finally seniors, they have transformed themselves into adults, like bright, shiny stars on a clear night. They are now ready to embark upon a tomorrow, the future ... the next stage of their lives.

The Sky's The Limit

Mr. and Ms. Whitman-Hanson: Jessica Kinch and Nathan Ross

Graduating Seniors from the 1998 yearbook class huddle together grasping balloons, as if they are holding onto their high school memories. A few balloons float into the future ... symbolizing entry into a world in which "The Sky's the Limit".

CHERISHED MOMENTS

Memory means something different to everyone. A memory could be a dance to a special song at the semi or prom. A memory could be a ride on a rollercoaster while on a class trip. A memory could be a funny joke that friends share. A memory could be working together as a team, striving to win.

Our friends and classmates allow memories to be created. We came from separate towns and unified as one when we entered the doors of W-H. Four years ago, many of us thought that we would always remain with our home town group of friends. Yet, through our four years at W-H we have experienced much and meshed as friends.

Regardless of how we as people continue to change, the memories we've shared can never be forgotten.

Below: Brendan Finn wears his funkie glasses . . . perfect for his role in the new "Starship" movie.

COOL SHADES ... Jason Murphy and Sean Lyons show that with their hot looks they could model for GQ.

Far Right: K. Lincoln, K. Frazier, and L. Budd think they're on the top of the world as they tour Spain during April vacation.

GREAT TIMES...
... NEVER TO BE FORGOTTEN

BATTER UP!
Whitman All-Stars, Daniel Weir, Brett Hassan, and Patrick Sullivan, try to imagine what this picture will be worth when they're rich and famous.

KICKIN' BACK
Erin Brennan, Holly Long, Susan Lawlor, Danielle Nelligan, and Christine Cameron lounge at Colleen's house on Holly's 17th birthday.

WAKE UP!
This sleepy-eyed group of friends, M. Tobin, J. Vincent, K. Stone, J. Makein, J. Kinch, and P. Skarinka, can't seem to keep their eyes open the morning after a night full of dancing at the Junior Prom.

PROUD MOMENT
Eric Larsen and Colleen Healy share a moment at Colleen's Confirmation; doesn't Eric look so proud?

THUMBS UP!
Thomas Murphy and Charles Jarrett are caught being late for class as they stop to admire Charlie's sticker collection sophomore year.

WATCH OUT!
James Cameron in eighth grade leans against the family car thinking, "Senior year I will have one of my own!"

COOL CLOTHES
Elisabeth Boyce and Sara Bezanson show their school spirit back in 3rd grade on Crazy Dress-up Day.

SILLY STEPHEN
Stephen Hardiman looks a little too full; guess since it was his 5th grade birthday party, he thought he could eat more cake than usual.

High school students find that "The Sky's the Limit" in a lot of academic subjects:

Physics: If you go beyond the sky you'll either a) burn up or b) blow up.
Biology: Except for some little insignificant bacteria, no life exists where there is no oxygen.
History: The sky was only the limit until 1969 - then the moon was the limit.
Calculus: limit f(x) = the sky
x approaches infinity
So, apparently, in our high school years, the sky is the limit ... but later on in our lives, as we continue to grow and learn, a whole world of opportunity will be open to us ... and then there will be no limit of what we can do.

Kathleen Clifford

"The Sky's the Limit" is more than a theme; it is the way this class decided to look at things. I have never met a group of people so spirited, close, and hardworking. To all in the Class of 1998, I wish you luck; keep your heads high and always make only the sky be your limit.

Jessica Kinch

We've worked hard to achieve our goals and now our high school years are over. We can do anything we put our minds to.

Jaime Maul

We're almost there,
All rising to the top.
We've climbed
the highest mountains
So why should we stop?
We'll keep flying high
With our goals in hand
Spreading our knowledge
All over the land.
The lights shining bright
So why should we dim it?
Here is our future,
"The Sky's the Limit."

Nathan Daniel Ross

Our class can accomplish anything We have come together through our years at Whitman-Hanson and raised money for proms, semis, and lock ins. Together we can do anything and we have proven this to everyone.

Carolyn White

The sky may be the limit but limits can be broken ... so I guess your imagination would be the real limit, but isn't your imagination endless?

Mr. William Thrasher

"If man's reach doesn't exceed his grasp ... then what's a heaven for?"

Thomas A. Edison

The phrase "The Sky's the Limit" is very meaningful. This term implies that the amount of success achieved in a person's life is determined only by his own personal will for success. Everyone has the power to fulfill his or her hopes and dreams; the only limit placed upon each person is that limit imposed by each individual himself.

Laura Budd

In our lives there are no limitations. We can be whoever we want to be and we can do anything we set our minds to accomplishing. We can surpass even the greatest obstacles and always be confident that we will come out stronger and wiser.

Katie Frazier

If a person works hard, stays determined, keeps a positive outlook, has a lot of fun, and makes a lot of friends, he can accomplish anything his heart desires.

Katie Cavagnaro

We can do anything in life.

Jackie Deegan

The sky really is the limit. If a person wants something badly enough he will try as hard as he can to obtain it. We all can go anywhere and be anything we want. We are young and have no restrictions. Just like my brother said in his salutatorian speech, "Reach for the moon, and if you miss, you'll still be among the stars."

Lisa Balsis

I think this means our class has no boundaries, and our dreams and expectations are limitless. These things make the class of 1998 the most unique and involved group of individuals this high school has ever had.

Paul Skarinka

OUR LAUNCHING PAD

The sky is the limit,
The earth our launching pad.
We strive to touch the stars,
While keeping our feet on the ground.
We all look out and see
All the endless possibilities.
Our sights are set,
Our dreams, molded hard.
The sky is the limit,
The earth, our launching pad.

Elisabeth Boyce

Today, "The Sky's the Limit" does not mean what it used to mean. (to me) Today, I see the sky as the beginning of the adventure and would say that there is no limit to what the Class of '98 can accomplish. All a person needs is the imagination to start on his own way.

Mr. James Daley

THE SKY'S THE LIMIT today ... tomorrow ... always

Students should realize that anything is possible in life if they work hard, achieve good grades, and always try their best. Successful people set goals in both their personal and professional lives and work towards achieving them. "The Sky's the Limit" for anyone willing to dedicate himself to excellence.

Mr. Robert Gay, Principal
Whitman-Hanson Regional High School

Below: Kenneth Vaughan thought he was a riot when he got buried in the sand, but ... uh! oh!, here comes the tide. Far Below: Sean Lyons and Kaitlyn McCarthy share a bite to eat before the Lollapalloza concert at Great Woods.

Best Friends Lee Boggier, Danielle Puliafico, and Sheryl Ayre decide this summer would be the perfect opportunity to capture their friendship while at the same time having their senior portraits taken.

SUMMER

MEMORABLE TIMES

Summer is like a present. When it comes, each person is filled with excitement and anticipation. It brings a smile to one's face and warmth to one's heart. Each person tries to imagine what summer will be like and what adventures it will bring.

Summer brings the feeling of freedom which is released with every unwrapping. It is a time for making memories. As the sun tan lotion is slathered on and the towels are turned towards the sun, one gazes upon the sky and realizes how this summer, the sky's the limit.

Each senior has his own perspective of what summer fun is. From family vacations and cookouts to going to the beach, or simply hanging out with friends, summer is the most extravagent season of the year.

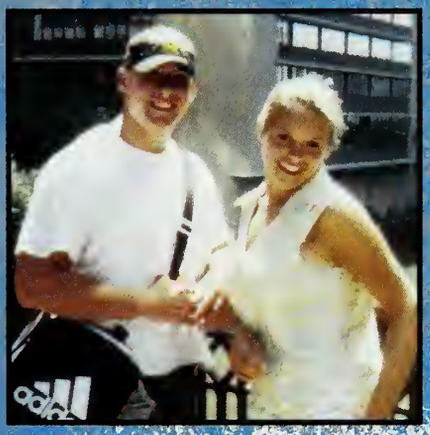
Right: Danielle Smith and Pamela Eaton enjoy the great surf at Nantasket Beach.
Far Right Above: Holly Long and Michael Tobin sink into the couch as they both try to decide if James Makein is sure... or unsure.
Far Right Below: Daniel Bezanson wonders... "Why is there a tube on my head?"

WHILE ON OUR VACATIONS...
... WE HAD FUN IN THE SUN!

GREAT TANS!
Elizabeth Getchell and Carolyn White get in line to board for their annual boat ride at Point Sebago, Maine.

A TALENTED TRIO!
Thomas Murphy, Daniel Bezanson, and Scott Andrews stop for autographs and pictures before going to band practice (12 cent).

HOSPITAL HAPPINESS!
This is one way Crystal Bradwin didn't want to be spending her last summer before graduation. She looks pretty happy considering she just had her appendix out.



FAMILY TRAVEL!
Cousins, Kevin Vacca and Christine Cameron, stop to admire the scenery from a bridge in Chicago.

PARTY TIME!
Jennifer Lynch, Vicky Mager, and Shauna Corliss think a picture is in order before they jet off to their first concert of the summer ... The Steve Miller Band.

HOT STUD!
Michael McKenzie is lounging, thinking if he can catch some rays he may also be able to catch some chicks.

BOATING EXPEDITION?
Jaime Maul hopes the pole she's leaning against at Vineyard Haven is sturdy, because the water is looking mighty cold!

FULL OF SMILES!
While anxiously waiting to chow down at the Ale House, Susan Lawlor, Colleen Healy, and Erin Brennan show off their pearly whites.

" The days may come,
the days may go,
But still the hands
of mem'ry weave,
The blissful dreams of long ago. "

REMEMBER THOSE MOMENTS!

Those high school years bring moments to remember ... to forget ... to cherish ... to share with others.

Below: SHY GUYS ... Brett Hassan, Kaitlyn McCarthy, Lora O'Connell, and Michael McKenzie look sheepish at all the attention they're receiving. JUST LOUNGING ... Jennifer Lynch and Alicyn Packard rest a few minutes before their limos return to take them home.

GLASS SLIPPERS ... Jennifer Alcarez and Siobhan Creedon, looking very Victorian in their evening wear, compare heels and practice their dance steps for the ball.

JUNIOR PROM

PRECIOUS MOMENTS

Dim lights. A large dance hall. Round tables set with decorative red napkins and glassware. Fancy chandeliers. An overcast sky; gentle showers later in the night. A long line of classmates waiting to have their pictures taken by professional photographers. These were the sights and images that accompanied the Class of '98's Junior Prom.

Some students arrived early at the Sheraton Tara in Braintree; Juniors "... danced by the light of the moon" or tried to, for the sky was overcast and a rain shower broke out during the prom.

The long satin dresses in blue, black, red, white, and light pink, the handsome tuxedos, the usual breakdancing, and the "Forever Young" theme were a few of the memorable images of the Class of '98's Junior Prom.

"WAIT!" Stephen Hardiman cries, but it's too late. He and Paul Skarinka have been framed for their good looks.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT! ... Looking slightly bewildered but still keeping an air of importance, Ryan Bevans waits for the signal so he can begin broadcasting the Junior Prom. The prom was later aired on cable TV.

FOREVER YOUNG ...
... AN EVENING OF ENCHANTMENT

ALL SMILES! Melissa Currie and Neal Quersher practice getting ready for the Junior Prom with a pose for the camera.

LUXURY LIMO Michael Robillard, Kathleen Clifford, Hilary Baker, and Jared Trout travel in style as they cruise along towards the Sheraton Tara in Braintree.

WATCH THOSE GUYS! Jonathan Dwyer does a rain dance in an attempt to make the clouds go away. David Osborne concentrates ferociously on his feet as he tries to dance to perfection.

ELEGANTLY DRESSED J. McKenzie, C. White, L. Brown, K. Blake, E. Getchell, and K. Perry, dressed in their elegant satin gowns, are pretty enough for the cover of Glamour.

BROADWAY STYLE Melissa Brown, Kate Stone, Jessica Kinch, Kristin O'Reilly, Laura Budd, Corinne Holden, and Michelle Myers look ready to kick up their heels, Broadway style.

NIGHT AND DAY Christina Pesente and Maggie Powers show that though their tastes are clearly different, it is always said "opposites attract".

THE TABLE SHOT The crowd gathers around the table for a photo before they eat and get back on the dance floor.

GLAMOROUS GIRLS E. Curtis, N.Grzelak, L. Medeiros, J. Craft, A. Coffey, and K. McLaughlin light up the prom with their smiles.

We came to school
September of '94.
Two towns converged
On the second floor.

Our advisors assigned
Mr. Swett and Mr. Floeck,
Along with Kerrie, Vick, Ali, and Sarah
Kept us all in check.

They made us take Health
To learn about our bods,
While we were confused
About those things they called "Mods"

[illegible] showed [illegible]
With H-W on her [illegible]
At the [illegible]
Because [illegible]

The overbearing [illegible]
Said the [illegible]
But for the [illegible]
The thread [illegible]

[illegible]
Grew hair again because we could,
Turning our shirts inside out
Claiming their meaning was misunderstood.

Navy Band caused the makeshift moshpit,
[illegible]ed forces favorite band.
Bust-A-Move filled the courtyard
Which brought on the staff's reprimand

The year flew by;
Freshman year had passed.
Only three years left;
We were Sophomores at last.

Sophomore year was great;
Mr. Gay now at the helm.
We started way too early
And the homework began to overwhelm.

Cocoran showed O.J. the way,
But he really didn't need'm.
Money, fame and a name
Helped O.J. buy his freedom.

Football won the ACL;
The fall teams passed the test of fate.
Soccer in the tournament;
CC second in the state.

At the Sophomore lock-in
We were all surprised
To see all of our friends
Being hypnotized.

Winter track girls won their first meet ever
And the drama club performed Brigadoon.
The wrestling team lost almost never
While "Indiana Jones" was the band's marching tune.

Several feet of snow
Kept us in school late.
We survived a downburst
Again at home we wait.

To Water Country we did fly;
We thought the fun just wouldn't halt,
But we stayed in school until July
And Keri stuck her Olympic vault.

Sophomore year was done;
With a short summer Junior year came
We were upperclassmen, and
Block scheduling was ... ahh ... different.

CLASS HISTORY 1998

Junior Year cruised in
And a few things had changed
Mike was VP and Stifler took the reins.

For the first time in history
The girls played volleyball.
Cross-country did well
And there was a festival that fall.

Our "Night on the Town"
Was quite athletic,
But everyone agreed
The setting was pathetic.

To New Orleans the Pats went
For a feast of Jumbalaya.
After a disappointing game
We all wanted to crya'.

A big stink about the Otis.
We all loved turkey slop.
It was too bad for football;
This year baseball was top.

Tu Pac and Biggie
Gunned down in their prime.
Now never again
Will they be able to rhyme.

An April Fool's snow storm
And later our prom.
We lost our class trip
Though we had done nothing wrong.

The Red Fox was gone,
Powder Puff never came.
We got our licenses
And drove our parents insane.

Our Junior year had gone by;
Three down, one to go.
How Senior year would treat us,
No one could know.

Senior year finally came;
Jess, Mike, Kristin, and Paul.
With SAT's and applications,
Stress was really tall.

Whitman's Toll House cookie
Was chosen by the state.
It won by a landslide
And beat out fruit and cake.

We all planned on taking the train
When the Old Colony Rail came by,
But when we discovered the prices,
A tear came to our eye.

With twirling fire at the game
Against the Rams we won.
The Panthers winning year
Had only just begun.

All our hearts were broken
For those the world has lost.
Celebrities and friends
At such a painful cost.

At the semi and the prom
We danced the night away.
With the banquet still to come,
We approached the end of May.

And so we are forced
To bid a farewell
To our foolish agendas.
May they all rot in ...!

On June sixth
With tears in our eyes
We mounted the stage
And said our good-byes.

The cage is now open
With knowledge the key.
The sky's our only limit.
Now we are free.

Daniel Weir and Kevin Lussier share a friendly moment at the Junior Prom. Their best friends statement, written on a brown pizza box cover, stated that they have been friends for years and "are always supportive of each other".

Where there's more of giving

BEST FRIENDS

FOREVER FRIENDS

Everyone has friends, and hopefully everyone can say that he has a best friend. A best friend is a person who can be trusted, relied upon, and counted on to always be there to offer caring and concern.

Friends will come and go, but a best friend will always be there. A best friend will be the person one will always remember and care about no matter what.

"You are my best friend
Not only for what
You have made of yourself
But for what
You are making of me."
Ray Croft

Right: Kristyn Wood and Tracey Thompson never want to grow up. They have been friends since Middle School, but in the past four years they've become best friends. They have always been there for each other and always, always will be.

Right: Andrea Mucci and Sarah McDonough have been best friends forever. They have made it a practice to attend semi-formals together; on the left, they are ready for the 8th grade semi; on the right they are ready for the junior semi.

LEAN ON ME ...
... THROUGH THE GOOD TIMES AND BAD

PICTURE PERFECT
Alyssa Ayou says that she and Sara Bezanson have been friends since freshman year. "She's always been there for me when I need her. And I appreciate it; we'll be friends forever."

ALL SMILES
Jessica Kinch , Kathryn Stone, and Corinne Holden have been best friends from middle school up to their senior year.Since they can remember, the three have celebrated everything together from birthdays and proms to laughs and tears. "No matter what happens, we'll always be there for each other," says the three in unison.

THROUGH THICK AND THIN
Susan Lawlor and Holly Long have been best friends for a while. Sue says, "Holly has been there through thick and thin and is always there when I need to talk."Holly says, "Sue and I have been through a lot together. She has always been there whenever I've needed her. Thanks, Suzy. I love ya!"

FRIENDS OVER SEAS
Lora O'Connell, Lauren O'Brien, and Kaitlyn, McCarthy are warmly dressed for the cool temperatures of the Ireland '96 trip. According to Kaitlyn, "We have been best friends since freshman year. Sports has had a big part of our friendship. It has brought us together. We're always there for each other."

THREE BEST STUDS
There are actually eight friends, but we had to settle for a picture of three of us: Matthew Bonatti, Brian Morse, and Peter McLean. We choose to hang with each other because of our shared interests: visiting our favorite Friday night destination, making funny conversations over silly topics, watching the Sunday game, or even dressing like each other for the prom.

FANCY FRIENDS
Katie Cavagnaro and Melissa Brown have been friends since they took gymnastics together in middle school. Although they are from different towns, as they entered High School, they grew closer and became the best of friends.

TOGETHER FOR CHRISTMAS
Kerrie Blake, Lisa Brown, Elizabeth Getchell, Jamie MacKenzie, and Carolyn White have been best freinds for years. "We've been there for each other through everything, and no matter where our future takes us, our past will keep us together."

DOUBLE THE FUN
Erika Swanson, Kathleen Bryan, and Kimberly Bryan have been best friends all through high school. "The twins have been there for me through the good times and the bad. And I will never forget them.Thanks guys!" says Erika.

Below: A lot has changed since the 8th grade Rec ... mostly Maggie Powers' style.
Far Below: Colin Welch sneaks down to see Nicole Booras and Jennifer Lynch during the D.C. trip, and now skips class; nothing's changed - huh?

Back in 5th grade Michael Tobin wanted to sail like Popeye; obviously, as one can see, he's eaten his spinach!

NOW AND THEN

TIME PASSES

So much has changed since the eighth grade. Styles have changed; the way we spend our time has changed. Our friends have changed.

Over the past few years, some friends have moved away and we have grown apart; yet, through the years we have also made new friends.

Many of the people we go to school with have changed. In many ways we have become different people through the way we present ourselves, our styles, and our attitudes. In many ways our likes and dislikes have defined who we are. Our goals have changed through the four years of high school.

We have experienced caring support from parents and teachers who have guided us; they have helped us through these years of growth and development.

Left: Then, Kelly Mulligan and Holly Long scooted around Holly's room in the Hulk Mobile. Now, they drive around town in cars.

Right: Kate Bernier and Pamela Eaton were distant in the 8th grade, but they have grown closer as the years have gone by.

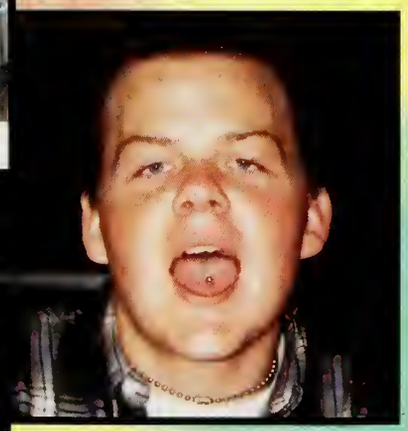
BATHING BEAUTIES
Lora O'Connell and Colleen Healy crack a few laughs after losing their mats at Water Country.

80's to 90's
ulie Davis had pretty high hair in 7th grade, but she's tossed he hairspray come senior year.

CUTE COUSINS
Who's that sitting on the chair? Why it's Daniel Bezanson and Sara Bezanson; you couldn't even tell!

METAL HEAD
Erik Coughlin seems to have a fetish with metal... it went from his head to in his mouth.



CURLY CUE
Shelia McBride and Christine Hooper's friendship has stayed strong through the years, but their hair has gone limp.

HAIR TODAY
Wow, was Jasmine Baxter's & Laurel MacComiskey's hair long in 3rd grade... where'd it go?

LOOK OF INNOCENCE
David Osborne and James Connolly have grown up since Jim's Superman pj's; or have they?

Hold on to your dreams
as the years unfold.
Don't compromise
the ideals that you hold ...

For on history's pages
are written the deeds
Of those who had courage
to live by their creeds,
Who held on to their dreams
and at last achieved
The lofty goals
in which they believed.

So be true to yourself

SPECIAL EVENTS

Spooky and Sparkling

Whether disarming, dressed for Halloween, or charming, dressed for the Junior/Senior Semi, special events at W-H have always evoked a spirt of enthusiasm. Special events provide opportunities to see students in various persona and allow them to let down their hair and go wild. Planning,preparation, and photo opportunities add to the excitement level of these events. Accessorizing for Halloween, beautifying for the Semi, marching in the Veterans Day Parade, creating signs and cheering for the rally, and competing in the Powder Puff create memories that will last forever.

Each and every event allows students to act kiddish or grownup, have spirit or pride, and promotes rivalry or unity among the classes.

Though special events are momentary, they create everlasting memories that make Whitman-Hanson's Regional High School unlike any school in the usual galaxy.

"Hey, look at my hair ... I'm an original W-H student," says Melissa Byron. At the semi, not only is fun the limit, but Melissa Byron's hair, too, as she poses for a snapshot with her friend, Vicky Mager.

HALLOWEEN

Halloween is a time when each individual's true spirit shows through. And, that's not school spirit! The spirit displayed on these pages is more of a "kid at heart" spirit.

When Halloween rolls around once a year, the students at W-H go all out. Whether they spend long morning hours on face painting or throw their costumes together at the last minute, the students try their hardest to bring Halloween into the school day.

With the help of Student Council passing out candy, teachers dressing up themselves for the day, and the ever present yearbook photographer snapping photos for the yearbook, the Halloween Dress-Up Day was a huge success. The costumes seen around the school ranged from farmers, athletes, singers, and favorite characters from TV to a large array of animals. There were also the traditional witches, ghosts, and goblins mixed amongst some cross dressers, angels, and UPS delivery girls.

In short, Halloween is a time to leave the realities and responsibilities of "adulthood" behind and to reminisce as the children we used to be. This return to childhood is important for high school students. They are constantly looking for some way to escape the stress of everyday life caused by jobs and schoolwork. Halloween is the perfect time to do this; it also allows students time to have fun and to show spirit at the same time.

While some students are too shy or self-conscious to accessorize themselves in unearthly attire, others find Halloween a way to demonstrate their true personality or to assume a different persona - in costume.

JUNIOR SENIOR SEMI-FORMAL

Spinning, twirling, twisting, swirling ... and the night started off with a camera flash ... catching memories in a still frame. The Junior Senior Semi brought together the Classes of '98 and '99 for an enchanted evening of dancing and fun. The Monday night before Veterans Day was chilly, as the students paraded into the Sons of Italy in Rockland. The hair styles, dresses, and shoes were individualistic and showy. From sheer and sparkling to satin and velvet, the varied array of dresses and shoes was decidedly memorable.

The fun and excitement of the evening was truly carried out by the guys of Whitman-Hanson. From their khakis and vests to plaid shirts and suspenders, the guys displayed their "creativity" of style.

Activities of the evening included a buffet dinner of pasta and salad and dancing to a comical DJ. After-the-semi plans were varied; the group divided, and students went their own ways. Some partied, while others ventured into Boston, or stayed in and watched the Lion King.

The Semi was a time to gather more memories of the shortening Senior Year.

VETERANS DAY PARADE

On November 11, 1997 at 9:00 a.m., the Whitman-Hanson Band, Majorettes, and Color Guard marched in the annual tri-town Veterans Day Parade in Abington. It was a cold day for the parade, but the sun stayed out for a good part of the morning.

Christine Lehmann, Jonathan Dwyer, and Kathleen Clifford assumed the roles of drum majors, giving the band student leadership. They directed the band by conducting and giving marching commands. Music for the parade was a standard armed forces medley including: the Marine Corps Hymn, Anchors Aweigh, the Caisson Song, the Air Force Theme, plus some of the fall music used in the band's football field show.

Demonstrating their devotion to duty, all of the band members attended the parade, even though the Semi-formal was the previous night. The students were very tired, but they made it through the fairly short parade. Toward the end, rain drops started falling. The members all celebrated the outstanding job they did marching by treating themselves to breakfast.

There were only two other schools that marched with Whitman-Hanson, Rockland and Abington. Whitman-Hanson students and Mr. Oliviere, did a great job marching in this parade ... a parade devoted to paying respect to all people who have served in the armed forces.

RALLY DECORATING

Before the seniors and juniors go out to compete in the Powder Puff game, the students of W-H gather in the late afternoon to decorate their designated spots in the gym. Within three hours, each class has the chance to show its school spirit in its own artistic, creative way. But, as always, the Class of 1998 outshines the rest with its cooperative and imaginative ability.

After the long hours of decorating, the seniors are satisfied by the pizza that awaits their growling stomachs. Now, pumped up, the juniors and the seniors take to the field for the longly anticipated game ... as the spectators take to the bench.

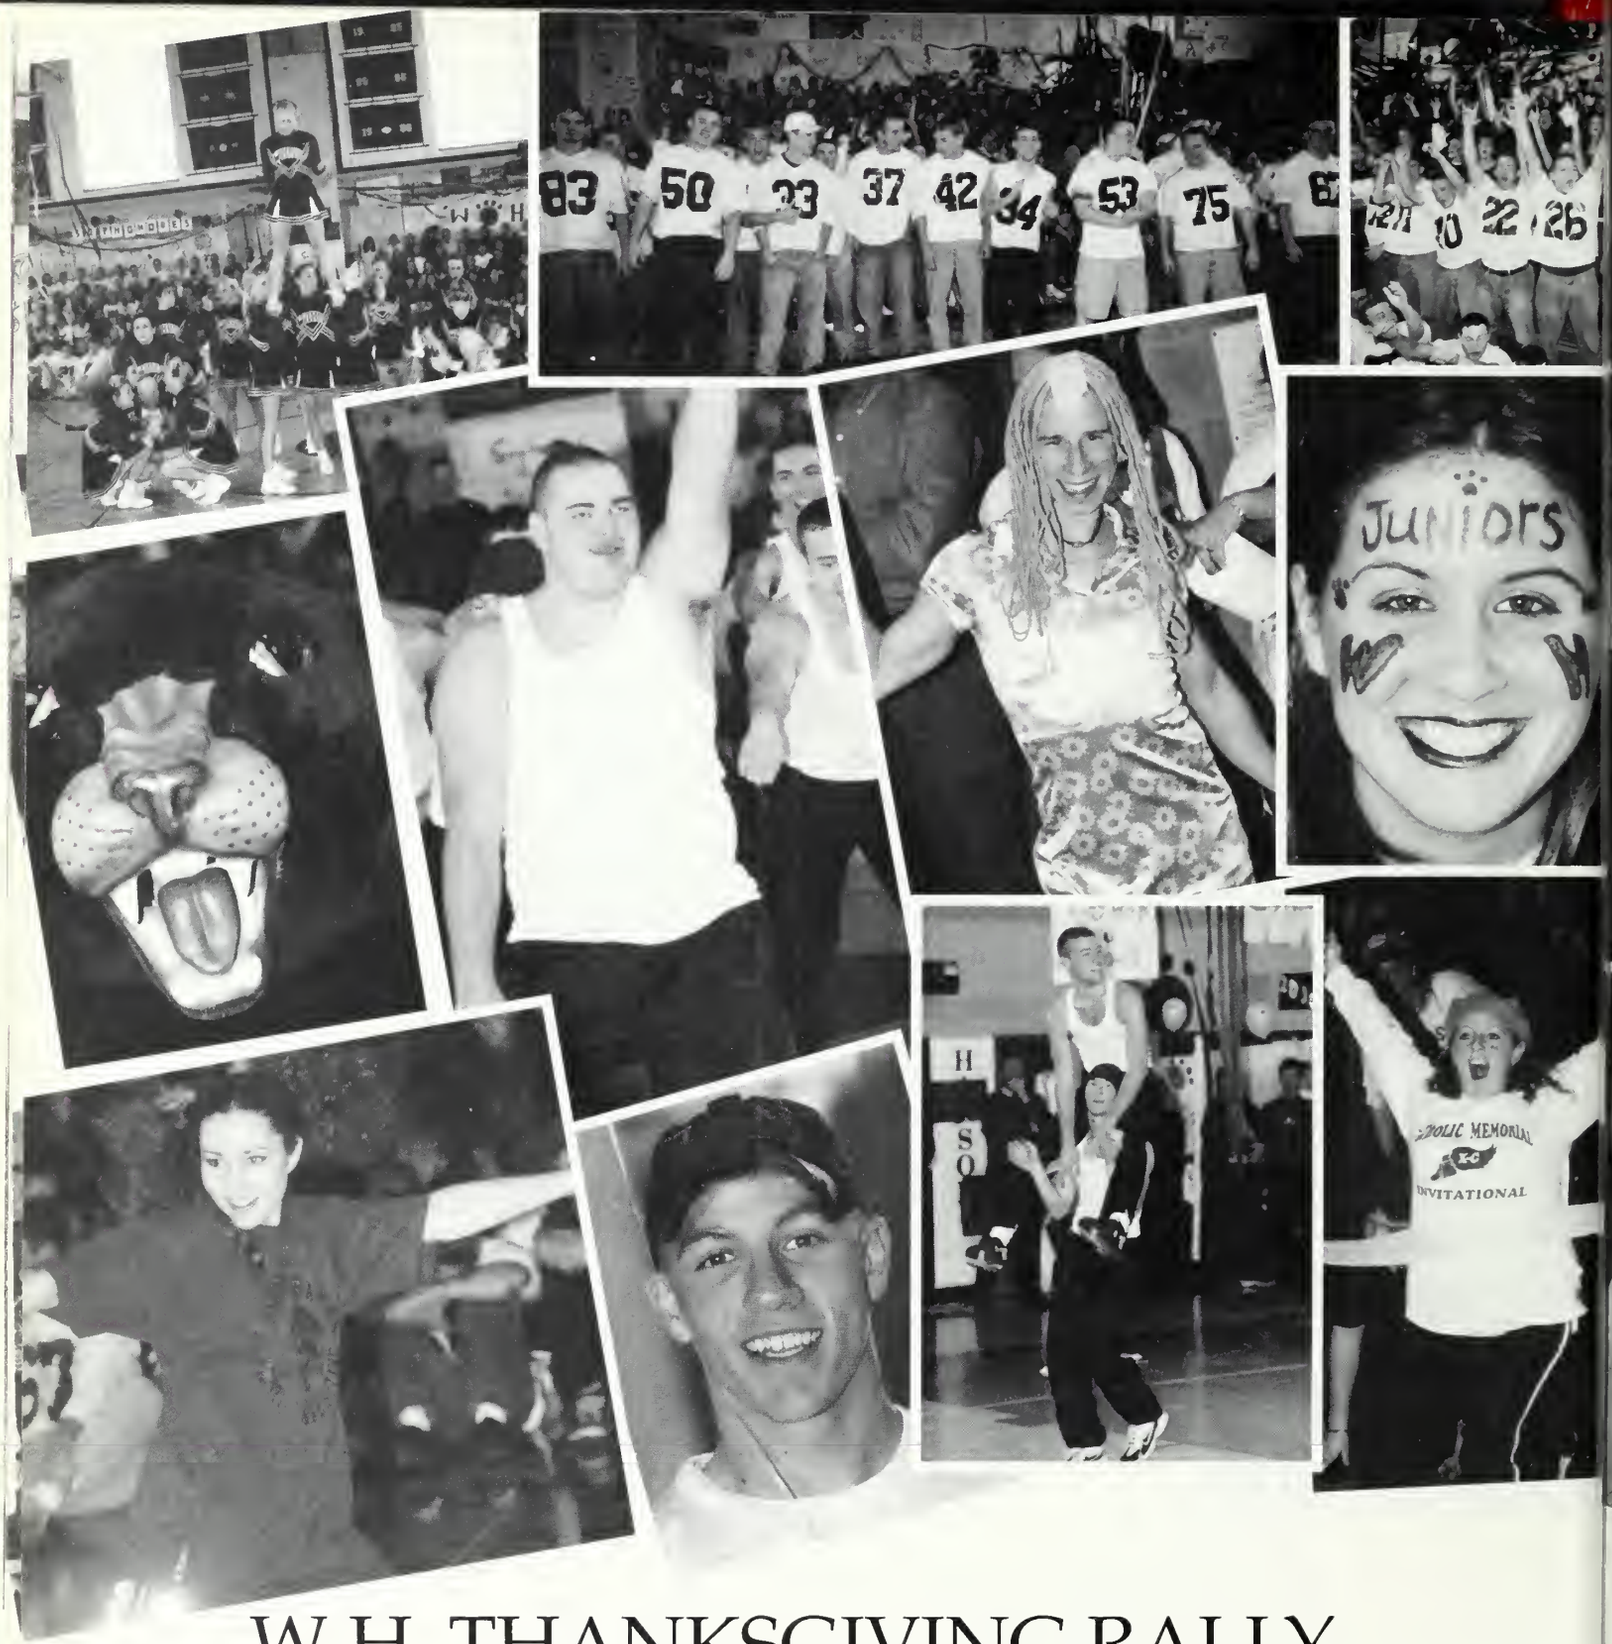
POWDER PUFF GAME

November 25, 1997

The Powder Puff Game is a pre-Thanksgiving Day event in which the girls get a chance to show their masculine side as football players and the guys get a chance to show their feminine side by becoming cheerleaders. A yearly tradition at W-H, this is an event in which the juniors and seniors can put their differences aside and just have fun... even though they are battling out a win - this year for the juniors - on the field.

As the girls practice all week for the big game on Tuesday night, the guys are also busy dancing away and getting ready for their cheering performance.

There is always excitement in the air ... fellow classmates cheering on their favorite players.



W-H THANKSGIVING RALLY

November 26, 1997

Once again the Whitman-Hanson Rally brought together all four classes and brought out the best of their school spirit. Following school tradition, the Senior Class wore black, the Junior Class wore red, the Sophomore Class wore white, and the Freshman Class wore pink.

The freshmen sat in awe as the senior, junior, and sophomore classes chanted "Go home freshmen; go home!". The junior and senior boy cheerleaders came out to perform their fantastic routines that were, for the first time in rally history, recorded and approved before the rally by the administration.

The senior girls also did a fantastic job on their performance in the Senior Skits, which were also recorded and approved by the administration. Other performances included the football varsity and junior varsity cheerleaders, the majorettes, and the Panther band. All these acts provided entertainment and evoked school spirit from the enthusiastic spectators.

At the end of all the chanting and cheering, members of all the sports teams were called to the center of the floor by Athletic Director, Mr. Bob Bancroft. After all the teams circled around the center of the floor, Mr. Bancroft called out Ms. Sue Moss and applauded her for her outstanding performance as the Girls Cross Country Coach for the past 25 years. W-H students added to her recognition by giving her a standing ovation.

A traditional element of the rally highlights a junior girl, voted by her class members, as Miss Touchdown. This year's Miss Touchdown was Andrea Olsen.

"THE IMPOSSIBLE YEARS"

"The Impossible Years" seems to be how many students would describe their high school years. Full of decisions and choices, priviledges and responsibilities, mistakes and regrets.

These contrasting emotions of high school students were all portrayed in the student production of the 60's play "The Impossible Years". The play is about a psychologist, Jack Kingsley, played by Luis Herrera, who is also a father and an author. He is in the midst of writing his second book about teenage girls, while raising his own daughter, Linda, played by Alicyn Packard. Linda is on the brink of adulthood; with her 18th birthday only 2 months away she feels she should have more priviledges,which include going to Fire Island on the 4th of July.

As the play progresses, Linda goes from driving her father crazy with all her friends over, to driving her mother Alice, played by Kelly Mulligan, to drink after she finds out her daughter is no longer a virgin and is married.

Crew: Ryan Forrester, Siobhan Creedon, Keith Soule, Laurel MacComiskey.

Many real life situations with a twist of humor were the essence of this play. The flavorful parade of characters, such as Bart S. Muts, 'the artist', who tried to sell the nude picture of Linda to her father, to Andy, the guy without his license who drove into Jack's car, made the play.

Even with the funny script, the play would not have been as successful without the time put in by the dedicated students. A commitment was needed by everyone to create the set and to direct each other. With no specific director, different students took the director's roll at different times. Not everyone involved in the production was seen on the stage.

The above pictures display everyone involved in the production and different scenes throughout the play.

This diverse group of underclassmen gathers together to show off their pearly whites.

UNDERCLASSMEN

Night and Day

High school has many stages, as does the student. At the beginning of each student's educational journey, the student is a freshman...entering an unexplored, new world of faces, teachers, challenges, responsibilities, and activities. Each student learns to adapt to his or her surroundings and to do his or her best to fit in.

Then, as a sophomore, the facade that a freshman tends to hold up is dropped, and the student blossoms into the person he or she is most comfortable being. The sophomore is like a middle child...not the oldest, not the youngest, just in between.

As a junior ... about to rule the school ... thoughts of what to wear to the junior semi and prom, fears of writing a Spellman Essay, and the challenge of choosing a college wear on his thoughts. The student begins to realize that the future is taking shape.

Now is the time to move with the decisions already made and make life happen.

Not only do the DECA students work in the school store, but they also do their own advertising! These DECA students proudly display a variety of hats that can be purchased by the student body.

These PROTECT members are all smiles after a successful meeting with the sixth graders at the Indian Head School in September. PROTECT's goal is to educate youngsters on the dangers of peer pressure, labeling, and drugs.

STUDENT LIFE

Challenges & Rewards

"HELLO, ... and welcome to a new school year!" is a message brought to you from your 'best friend' (you know ... your agenda).

Student life varies from person to person, depending upon his own personal recipe combining academics with clubs and activities.

Academics 101 pretends to have a set schedule with the usual PSAT's, SAT's, Spellman Essays, senior autobiographies, etc. etc. needing to be mastered, but in reality, there are daily changes for field trips, experiments, class meetings, and of course ..... testing.

Academics is a mandatory responsibility; clubs and activities are a voluntary responsibility. Students often choose to participate in a club or activity as their interest has been sparked by an academic class, they want to make new friends, or maybe they just want to spend more time with the friends they already have.

Words of wisdom abound in your "best friend" including the following memorable quotes:

"You need class to pass! Be there."

"If you fail to prepare, prepare to fail."

"Tomorrow is a new day; forget past failures."

"Keep reading interesting books over the summer."

Not only does student life include classes and clubs, but also allows students to work with their hands and get creative. These masks suggest the outrageous imaginations held by the students at W-H.

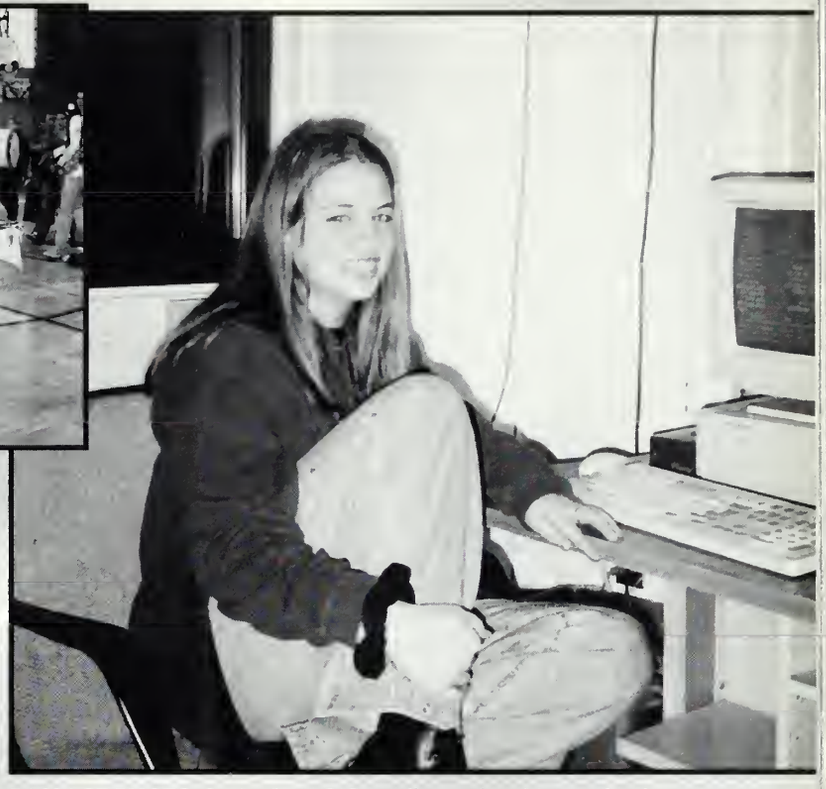
Above: Sarah McKinley concentrates on performing well during the band Christmas assembly. Sarah plays the drums and has been in the high school band for four years.



PASSAGE PHOTO: Senior Lora O'Connell says that this year has been a passage year for her because she has used this year as an opportunity to excel in her athletic career. She plans on attending Bridgewater State College and continuing her participation in soccer and basketball. She feels that the sports programs at W-H have successfully prepared her to move on to a more advanced competitive sports level in college.

Above: Corinne Holden, displaying her sunflower clock, says that at 7:30 in the morning she is entering W-H just in time for her first class. She is awake and has the thirst for knowledge... and since it is a B week she will be in Yearbook Production class.

Work & Money

The call was a frantic one. 2:30 in the afternoon. Send someone with a camera to the Science Wing immediately. Mr. James Daley (right) looks sheepish as he discusses with Mr. Mel Chatsko about what to do with the television and the chair lift.

Mr. Edward Valla, Chairman of the Language Arts Department, makes an effort to visit the Gourmet Gallery and his favorite waitress, Nicole Booras, even though he is kept busy with all his repsonsibilities.

Teachers, counselors, and administrators gather at the October Faculty Meeting; here they demonstrate the unity of the Whitman-Hanson staff and its constant willingness to help the student body.

Principal Robert Gay thoroughly enjoys teaching in the classroom when he gets the chance. On this gloomy Halloween, Mr. Gay not only gets to discuss business law, but he also gets a good laugh at everyone's costume.

In her costume as a peasant girl, Ms. Jana Iampietro shows her school spirit on Halloween Dress-Up Day.

PERSONNEL
A GALAXY

Dedication is the word to describe the Whitman-Hanson personnel. Each staff member contributes in his own way to help make each student's four years bright and to help each student live up to his full potential.

Teachers are always there to inspire students to reach for the stars and to go beyond their limits. The list of creative and inspiring lessons and projects is endless.

Whether it be writing a prize-winning English essay or an A+ history paper, building villages of paper, growing toenail fungus, creating ceiling tiles or learning to juggle or make cars or shoebox cameras, blowing up balloons for an early morning photography shoot, learning tessalations, participating in a mock trial or a Julius Caesar play, or planting flowers to make the school look beautiful, the teachers are always there to inspire students to reach for the sky.

Who else would help the students make decisions about the future or help them with scheduling problems, if W-H did not have the guidance office full of professionals to make those changes and alter those confusing glitches.

And, of course, the personnel is always there to clean up this structure of learning, to serve the students their brain food in the cafeteria, and to do and administer accordingly, so that the students get what they need in order for this school to run smoothly.

A GALAXY OF PERSONNEL ...

MR. ROBERT GAY,
PRINCIPAL
WHITMAN-HANSON
REGIONAL H.S.

"As principal, I am often asked why would I want such a demanding job with its many long hours. The answer is simple - I love kids!"

Mr. Gay aims to be a visible principal involved with students. Therefore, he continues to "coach the wrestling team, attend school plays and concerts, and does everything he possibly can to spend time with students."

Mr. Gay says that his goal is to make W-H "the best school it can possibly be. However, without a doubt, it is the students who combine to make W-H the great place that it is today. ... Block scheduling, Renaissance recognitions, student agendas, and awards nights can assist the students in their pursuit of excellence ... however, the bottom line will always be the quality of the student body."

Mr. Gay feels that graduation from high school is an important milestone, yet it cannot be the students' final educational accomplishment. It is critical that students continue to learn daily, no matter if in a formal or an informal educational setting.

"It is important that students always try to be good, decent, and caring human beings," Mr. Gay says. "I want [students] to know I'm always there for them and will do anything I can to assist them in their pursuit of excellence."

Mr. Gay's words of wisdom to the Class of 1998:

" 'The Sky's the Limit' for anyone willing to dedicate himself to excellence. Good luck to you all, keep in touch with your alma mater and may God bless you always."

ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL

MR. EDWIN WALSH, ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL

Mr. Paul Alperen, W-H's senior Assistant Principal, has worked at W-H for almost thirty years. In that time, he says, "I have seen the school develop into one of the finest high schools in the entire Commonwealth. The educational opportunities ... are second to none and provide our students with the background they need to be successful in the pursuit of their life goals. Our Block Scheduling has worked well and is a model for other schools."

Words of wisdom for the Class of 1998? ... a group of individuals he sees as having infused all "your activities, academics, sports, and extracurriculars, with an enthusiasm that has allowed you to excel in each of these areas." Mr. Alperen says, students should "... always try their best no matter whether the task is large or small, important or trivial ... doing your best tells the world that you take pride in all your efforts. ... [Students should also] be willing to act when you see some wrongful act taking place..." This is the ultimate guarantee of justice.

Mr. Walsh, currently completing his third year at W-H as Assistant Principal says, "I am continually impressed with the integrity, honesty, and diligence of our students. Members of the Class of 1998 have played a strong role in the formation of this impression. The role of an Assistant Principal could lend itself to a cynical and jaded opinion of high school students. Thankfully, this has not been the case here at WHRHS for me. I am personally and professionally blessed to have the opportunity to work with such great kids, especially the Class of 1998!!!"

MR. MATTHEW DELANEY
NATIONAL CERTIFIED TEACHER

Matthew Delaney III, was recently honored by President Clinton at a ceremony in the White House. In December of 1996, Mr.Delaney was one of the first teachers in the nation to receive national certification in the area of early adolesence through young adulthood art.

To earn National board certification, which is voluntary, teachers must demonstrate their knowledge and skills through a year long series of assessments including portfolios of student work, videotapes, and analysis of their classroom teaching. Teachers must also complete written exercises probing the depth of their knowledge.

MS. SUE MOSS HONORED COACH OF THE YEAR

As I reflect on my past two seasons as a member of the Girls Cross Country Team, many painful yet wonderful, fun memories readily come to mind. I shall always remember the grueling park workouts, the infamous five mile loop, bus rides to Franklin Park, Papa Gino's pizza feasts, winning a long awaited league championship, and subsequently qualifying for the Mass State Meet, and most importantly, my coach, Miss Susan Moss.

Coach Moss is a person who will give her team all she has to give. She never asked more of her team than she herself would give to us. Her famous Friday "juice days" always made the speed workouts much more bearable. Knowing that fun is a necessary part of team spirit, she allowed us to go trick-or-treating on our Halloween practice day, and she sanctioned our fall freshman shaving cream fights in the woods. She has been the coach of the Girls Cross Country Team since its very beginning twenty-five years ago. This year was the best ever finish for the team with a tenth place finish in the All State Meet.

The 1997 Cross Country Season was Coach Moss's last season, for after 25 years of coaching the -W-H Girls Cross Country Team, Miss Moss has decided to turn in the stop watch. When next CC season begins and Miss Moss is working diligently in her new position as "Webmaster", the new coach will have very high standards to live up to!

I would like to thank Miss Moss for the privilege of running on her team and being a member of her "Pack". The experience of being a Panther Cross Country runner is one which has made me a better person.

Boss Moss - I hope to see you on the sidelines next year, cheering the Panthers on to another league championship!

- Liz Drewniak

MRS. EILEEN MALLOY LANGUAGE ARTS TEACHER RETIRES

Mrs. Eileen Malloy officially retired in June of 1997. Her leadership of and teaching career in the Language Arts Department at W-H spanned 26 years, from 1971 to 1997.

Mrs. Malloy, as a teacher, passionately enjoyed teaching American Literature, especially The Crucible and The Scarlet Letter; as a Department Chairman she was an advocate of the concept of Writing Across the Curriculum and because of her expertise in this field she spoke to many local and state teacher groups about this topic. She was also a prominent figure in the Massachusetts Council of Teachers of English.

Recently, at a November Retirement Party, colleagues of Mrs. Malloy gathered to honor her and her contributions to education. Mrs. Malloy addressed her colleagues briefly; her dedication to her years at W-H was clearly evident in her brief but emotional comments to those present.

Mrs. Malloy, although recently retired, has been in an unofficial capacity caring for her husband, Joe, who underwent heart transplant surgery in the spring of 1995. Her love of children led her to adopt three girls and two boys.

Truly, Mrs. Malloy exemplified Ralph Waldo Emerson's words: "The only gift is a portion of thyself."

Mr. Floeck - You've made a tremendous impression on our lives. You've helped us learn to set and surpass goals and overcome obstacles in our way. By helping set up successful fundraisers, our first two years, our class has been able to enjoy lock-ins, semi-formals, and proms. Your exceptional leadership has taught us the skills necessary to exceed/succeed in the game of life. Our lives will forever be changed by your interaction with our lives. Thanks, Jennifer, Sue, Holly, Colleen, Sherri, and Kate

MR. DAVID FLOECK SENIOR CLASS ADVISOR

Mr. David Floeck has been the Advisor to the Class of 1998 for four years. Mr. Floeck says, "As many have said ... you never get a second chance at a first impression ... and the first impression I got from the Class of 1998 was one of involvement, commitment, and school spirit. As seniors, the class has established a new mark for involvement in the school community. Other classes will have to work hard at meeting the accomplishments of the Class of 1998."

"The Class of 1998 has affected me in many ways. They have reminded me many times over why I went into the teaching profession. The relationships that I have established with the class will never be forgotten. You have made me very proud and I wish you continued success."

It is hard to believe that your year of graduation has arrived. ... You are a credit to yourselves, your parents, and your school! I wish you the best of luck and I hope your experiences at W-H have prepared you well for the future."

SPORTS

DEDICATED AND DETERMINED

The Whitman-Hanson sports teams are a united group of talented athletes. They show their dedication and determination by working as teams and having a winning effort. These athletes display their enthusiasm and sportsmanship on and off the field. The coaches and advisors support their athletes in both their sports and classroom studies, in encouraging them to focus not only on their game strategies but also on their school work. In fact, many of the athletes are Whitman-Hanson's top students.

Each team has many traditions passed from one year to the next. These traditions include sharing team suppers, toilet papering nights before games, and secret pals. The Whitman-Hanson athletes not only play on high school teams, but they also play on All-Star, State, and club teams. These teams allow athletes to travel all around the world, making friends they'll keep forever.

The Varsity Cheerleaders hover around Michael Rollins whose school spirit was keeping him warm during the Marshfield vs. Whitman-Hanson football game. Their school spirit paid off as the Panthers defeated the Rams 17 to 12.

The 1997 Whitman-Hanson Athletic Season has begun as one to go down in the records. Whitman-Hanson's Girls Cross Country Team, Boys Cross Country Team, Varsity Cheerleaders, and Varsity Football Team have all been 1997 Atlantic Coast League Champions. In addition, the Boys and Girls Soccer Teams both qualified for the MIAA State Soccer Tournament. What a great fall record! And, who is to say what records the winter and spring sports teams will bring in.

Mr. Robert Bancroft, Whitman-Hanson's Athletic Director says of the season, " We've never had a fall season like this before, with our success spread over so many sports. The winning records reflect the attitude of the entire student community of Whitman-Hanson." Indeed, the winning attitude of every team allows the members to see that "the sky's the limit".

Right: The Girls W-H Cross Country Team were 1997 ACL Champions, and for the first time ever, the girls made it to the State Championships and placed 10th. The girls gather here demonstrating their excitement for a "sky's the limit" undefeated season.

The 1997 Whitman-Hanson football team has had another extravagent season. After last year's 7-3 record, the Panthers came back strong to win their 12th ACL Championship in the past 13 years and recorded an undefeated record of 9-0-1. The Panthers worked extra hard this year and were a very determined team to have the season that they had.

The football team accomplished a lot of their work with the help and the great support from the Whitman-Hanson cheerleaders. The Varsity Cheerleading Squad earned 2nd place at the Emmanuel College Cheerleading Competition and placed 1st at the ACL Competition which was held at Whitman-Hanson Regional High School this year.

Both the football and chearleading teams had great seasons filled with success and Panther pride.

Right: Coach Bob Bancroft says about his team: "Through hard work and strong senior leadership, we battled through the league and regained the league title.

Under the guidance of Coach Floeck and Co-Captains Kaitlyn McCarthy, Danielle Nelligan, Kristen Perry, and Lora O'Connell, the Girls Soccer team finished the season with a 10-5-1 record. This record earned the team a chance to participate in the State Tournament.

The Boys Soccer team,under the direction of Coach Barrington and Co-Captains Paul Sharinka, Eric Larsen, Brett Hassen and Christopher Connolly, also earned a tournament appearence with a final record of 10-5-4.

With their persistance,hard work and many hours after school, both of Whitman-Hanson's Varsity Soccer teams finished up with a great seaon.

Above: Captains and Coach, Paul Skarinka, Eric Larsen, Mr. James Barrington, Brett Hassan, and Christopher Connolly.

Boys/Girls

Once again the Whitman-Hanson Boys and Girls Cross-Country teams had a very successful season. Both teams earned an ACL Championship and an appearance in the 1997 State Tournament held at Franklin Park in Boston.

The girls finished 10th in the state as the boys team finished 13th.

This was the first time in the last 13 years that the girls have earned the ACL Title.

The 1997 Volleyball Team had a captivating second year as an organized sport here at W-H. With co-captains Ilea McKinney and Kate Bernier, both second year players, and with a new coach, the girls were ready for some action.

When asked about the team in general, Ilea said, "Well, since it's only our second year you can't expect us to be great, but we did improve because this year we actually won a game!" They certainly did. Their 1-14-0 record proves the girls have shown some definite improvement. To next year's team, both Kate and Ilea said, "Good luck girls, it can only get better! Have fun with Coach Hereau, too!"

Each year the Whitman-Hanson Special Olympians participate in many athletic events. The number of students is growing with each year and each student contributes his own individual strengths and qualities for making a great Olympian.

In the early fall the students started the school year with a soccer skills event held here at W.H.R.H.S. This year we have participated in our Second Annual Ring Hockey Tournament which was held in Lenox, MA. Basketball, bowling, and track and field are also some of the exciting Special Olympic events that are played over the course of the school year. Good Luck to these Special Olympians!

The 1998 W-H Basketball Team had a tough act to follow after last year's team made an appearance in the State Tournament. This year's team, consisting of 8 juniors and 4 seniors, filled all five starting positions, as all the experienced starters of last year graduated. Despite the disadvantages of inexperience, lack of height, and the lack of seniors, this year's team still managed to end the season with a record of 4-3-12.

Coach Bill Sweeney says about his team: "We were a young and inexperienced team; we had our disadvantages but were determined to finish the season with pride."

This season the Basketball Cheerleaders have been very successful. They will be defending their ACL Championship Title in the winter competition. This talented squad, which consists of 3 freshmen, 3 sophomores, 4 juniors, and 6 seniors, has earned a bid to compete in a National Competition which will be held in DisneyWorld during the first week of February.

The W-H Wrestling Team has been ACL Champions for the past seven years. The 1998 season, as always, hinges on the success of the Hingham meet. The team wrestles in 20 meets and so far this season the record is 15-3.

David Osborne took first place (22 teams participating) in the 112 weight category at the Framingham Holiday Classic; James Makein, in the 171 category, took first place at the W-H invitational which involved 10 teams.

Mr. Robert Gay, W-H's Principal, continues to lead the team with, "his laid back, but obvious love for the sport and support for his team," says David Osborne, Co-Captain.

The Girls Basketball Team, with just one game out , is hoping for a tie for the ACL Championship. "They've done well, they work hard; they play great defense," says Coach Daley.

"It's been another great season," adds Coach Daley, " with Lauren O'Brien, a two time captain and one of the hardest workers I have ever coached, Laura O'Connell, a player who is having a great senior year and who hits all the big shots, Kate Bernier, a great leader and a 4 year varsity player, and Stephanie Hurley, a junior ... and future leader of next year's team."

The Winter Track season has been a successful one for both the boys and the girls. The Boys Winter Track Team followed an undefeated season with only one loss this year to New Bedford, in a non league meet. This season represents the the second year in a row that the ACL Championship was captured by W-H.

Outstanding performances by Michael Hopps, Nathan Ross, Jared Trout, and Jason Papile propelled the team to its success. Hopps has the W-H record for the 600 and the 4 x 400 meter relay with Ross, Erwin, and Schlieff. Ross has the 300 meter and 60 meter records for W-H; Trout is W-H's best miler and Papile consistently dominates the two mile.

The Girls Winter Track season ended with a second place in the league. Julie Murray, Jennifer Carney, Kristy Zamagni, Emily Kemmitt, and Crystal Bradwin were dominating forces for Whitman-Hanson.

Hockey \

The W-H Hockey Cheerleaders endure the cold hockey arenas in order to bring spirit and support to the W-H Hockey Team. The girls practice once a week for the 10 home games at which they cheer. The W-H Hockey Cheerleading Squad is separate from the football and basketball cheerleading squad, although in some schools the same cheerleaders may cheer for all three sports.

"This year, the W-H Varsity Hockey Team is led by Captain, Brian Cushing, with Jason Pierce and Shane Butterfield serving as Assistant Captains. Numerous underclassmen gained invaluable experiences throughout the season and were called upon to play various positions during the season. These experiences, coupled with hard work in the off season, should provide for a solid base for the future.

...there is more to a team than just its record; it's important to note that a record doesn't indicate the effort and determination a team puts forth. Throughout the course of the season, the 97-98 team never quit and worked hard until the last buzzer. As of the first of February, the Panthers are 1-13-1, with a win and a tie being earned over South Shore Vocational Technical. The goal for the remainder of the season is to attain a league win.

The future of Panther hockey is unlimited, with an energetic, enthused, and dedicated class of returnees. However, the price for success needs to be earned collectively as a team through hard work and sacrifice." Coach Googins Participation on Freshman and JV Sports Teams demands practice, determination, and dedication for the athletes who are training for future positions on Varsity Squads. Players and coaches of these teams are always willing to express their feelings about their participation.

Girls JV Soccer - "The girls JV soccer team had a great season. Every team the girls played they managed to beat or to tie once. The coach was the best, and the team was unforgettable." Sara Kut

Girls Grade 9 Soccer - "Our great coach, Joanne Nickerson, brought our team great success." Liz Sanborn and Shawna Lapham

"Though we never beat the JV team on the field, we could lap them around the fence, since the majority of our practices were spent running fence laps."Carly Muise, Shawna Lapham, Liz Sanborn, Liz Hasson, Marika Beaton

Grade 9 Football - "This was a year of meeting new people and learning the ropes of Whitman-Hanson Football. Our 4-6 record was a scale of our performance on the football field, but with the combination of great kids and fun coaches, we had an undefeated season of having fun." Tony Generous

Grade 9 Basketball - "This was a great experience and we learned how to make losing fun. I love figure 8's." Christopher Raftery

"The Whitman-Hanson JV Girls Basketball team has had a winning, as well as an exciting season. With only 4 games remaining, the team has an impressive record at 13-3. Two of our best performances were against Holy Name & Duxbury. Hard work and determination to achieve have been qualities that each player has demonstrated. The effort put forward as a team has been great! It has been a pleasure to work with such a fine group of young ladies. I look forward to another successful 98-99 season.

SPONSORS

ENCOURAGING AND ENTHUSIASTIC

The students of today, whether already working in the local businesses (as pictured on the left), or thinking about what they will do for their future occupations (as pictured on the right), are always appreciative of the yearbook sponsors.

What helps to make the yearbook possible? Sponsors, of course! Each year, the businesses of Whitman and Hanson show their support through advertising, which greatly helps to reduce the cost of the students' yearbooks. Students from W-H may already work at these local businesses part-time for school credit through the Partners in Business Program or may be regular salaried part-time employees.

The Class of 1998's loving parents are also an enormous factor that make the yearbook possible. Not only are they there for the seniors at home, but they also support them in their school work and their school yearbook. Parents kindly send in the goofiest baby pictures, giving friends and teachers the opportunity to see the seniors in their funniest moments and to lend words of encouragement through the yearbook.

Together, business sponsors and parents help to make the yearbook possible. It is because of them, the students have a book of memories to cherish forever. The Whitman-Hanson students greatly appreciate all of the support that has helped them to see that the sky's their limit.

PARENT CONGRATULATORY MESSAGES

The Sponsor Section of the Whitman-Hanson Yearbook includes Parent Congratulatory Messages and Business Advertising. Thank you parents for your financial support of our yearbook and for your emotional support of our graduating seniors. Your responses and messages this year were an overwhelming demonstration of your desire to be a permanent part of the fondest memories our students will have. Thank you again.

A MESSAGE FROM THE 1998 W-H YEARBOOK EDITOR

JENNIFER L. LYNCH

Our high school years are just about over. We've had our share of memories, good and bad. We've had our share of friends, past and present. We've had our share of loves, forgotten and cherished. However, many more memories, friends, loves, and experiences will come with the future.

To look through this book will cause you to reminisce over the memories... evoke a few smiles, perhaps even a few tears. Hoping that you'll enjoy this book, I figured I'd tell you a little about what went into its creation. Many long hours, hard work, and creative thinking went into the development of this yearbook. Endless rolls of film, for all of our creative, spur of the moment, picture sprees, long hours, well after school ended for the day, and dedication and determination were necessary to meet those threatening deadlines. So, yes, putting a yearbook together is a little more work than just throwing pictures onto a page and writing a few words about the pictures.

On that note, I'd like to say my thank yous, good lucks, and good- byes. Thank you to the teachers who have educated us thus far. Yes, we may have pulled a few over on you, but you know you'll miss us! Thanks to all the friends that have been there for us to talk and cry to. Good luck to everyone entering college, going into the service, or entering the real world. I hope you find your niche.

Finally, goodbye. Goodbye to everyone as we each go our separate ways. As we say goodbye to all that is familiar, we must remember to never let go of the memories and friends that high school has held.

So, as we, members of The Class of 1998, graduate and go out to conquer the world, remember all our experiences of high school; let us never let go of our dreams, and

Today and Tomorrow

We, the Seniors, are now ready to embark upon a tomorrow, the future ... the next stage of our lives.

We realize:

"We live in a wonderful world that is full of beauty, charm and adventure. There is no end to the adventures that we have if we only seek them with our eyes open."

Above: Mr. Robert Gay, W-H Principal, had two basic messages to deliver. First, he reminded the students "... after today, you will still be, and will always remain a part of this high school ... which has been like a second home for you these past four years." His second message was to "... remember that the world can always use another caring, kind and loving human being." and that they should "Do unto others as you wish others to do unto you".

SENIOR BANQUET

On Tuesday, June 2, 1998, the Whitman-Hanson Seniors gathered at the Sheraton Tara in Braintree for their Senior Banquet. As the class approached the banquet hall, they were greeted by their Class Officers and Advisors who were distributing the class gifts. This year's class gifts consisted of a Class of 1998 engraved glass mug and an unforgettable class video filled with memories to last a lifetime.

As the aroma of the food from the buffet filled the air, the seniors anxiously awaited to hear those wonderful words "Dinner is served," for they had a long night ahead of them. As the seniors filled their plates, then their faces, Mr. Robert Belden was presented with The Teacher of the Year Award. Once his magical speech was complete, The Class of 1998 took to the dance floor and partied off the rest of the evening.

Left: Mr. Robert Belden, The 1998 Teacher of the Year, had three main points to make to the graduating seniors: "Don't be afraid to try anything; don't take no for an answer; and keep friendship in a constant state of repair."

SENIOR PROM

Enchanting ... memorable ... spirited... these three adjectives aptly describe the W-H Senior Prom held Thursday night, May 28, 1998 at Lombardo's in Randolph. From the Lombardo's outdoor sign, which welcomed W-H Regional, to the glistening chandelier, the perfect spot for a photo opportunity, to the never ending dinner which concluded with "gourmet" cookies and brownies, the evening was memorable.

The spirit of the theme song "That's What Friends Are For" prevailed twice during the evening. Early in the night the DJ distributed sombreros and maracas for the students to dance a Congo line. The DJ also recognized Class Treasurer, Paul Skarinka, who had told him earlier that he wanted this to be the most memorable prom ever.

Above:Senior, Chris King and Sophomore, Kim Vincent, pause briefly for a picture and then continue to dance the night away.

The seniors had so much fun and danced so much that they actually "cut up the dance floor"! A piece of the floor actually found its way through Danielle Puliafico's foot and landed her in the emergency room of the local hospital! Luckily, her misfortune was at the end of the night, so she didn't miss much!

After the prom, students partied at a local establishment, gathered at Grace Baldwin's house, camped out on the beach, or stayed in for a night for two. Though the night was filled with small mishaps, such as Lauren Pomakis losing $20 in the camara machine, or the bar running out of glasses, it was a night to remember.

It was a night filled with memories that will last a lifetime... or at least 'till we reminisce at our 10 year reunion!

In the past four years, very few interests have stayed the same, but many have changed. As Freshmen, the Class of 1998 moved from Kurt Cobain as their favorite singer, to the all time best country singer, Garth Brooks. The great Titanic sunk Black Hole Sun for their favorite music video, and it seems music varied from hip hop to alternative and then back again. But as Seniors...blue still stood out as their favorite color, Julia Roberts is still "a pretty woman", and Jessica Kinch warmed the hearts of all the Seniors as their favorite.

SENIOR BREAKFAST

As the aroma of pancakes, waffles, bacon and eggs filled the halls of W-H, the exhausted (because of the all night sleepless senior prank) but enthusiastic seniors raided the cafeteria in hopes of filling their empty tummies. As is obvious, milk in the morning did these little fellows good .

SENIOR PRANK

Once again, the seniors show off their seniority over W-H. With Mr. Gay's permission, on Wednesday, May 20th, the so-called "sneaky seniors" supposedly borrowed the town's best lawn ornaments. They all set up Camp W-H and spent the night causing harmless trouble ... until two unknown juniors scaled the heights of W-H to bombard the unexpecting seniors with an array of water balloons.

AWARDS NIGHT: Katie Cavagnaro, Kate Bernier, Crystal Bradwin, and James Franco all received scholarships at the annual Citizens' Scholarship Foundation of Whitman-Hanson Inc. Awards Night.

The 1998 Whitman-Hanson Spring Track Teams led an eventful track season with both the Girls and Boys Teams winning ACL Championship titles. The Boys Team won its 9th consecutive ACL Championship, while the Girls Team was excited to win its first ACL Championship.

The Boys Team ended Brockton High School's 80 meet winning streak that began back in 1989. This win gave the Boys Team an 8 win - one loss season.

The school was excited to host the 1998 State Coaches meet on May 16 on the Dennis M. O'Brien field. Forty-eight teams from all over the state participated Senior Captain of the Girls Team, Julie Murray, commented on the season. "This year's teams combined just the right amount of talent to produce the school's first championship ever. I believe this is the first step in [W-H] becoming a perennial power in the future." Girls Coach, Mr. Murtagh said: "After finishing in the 'bridesmaid position', it was a pleasure to attain our quest, the ACL Championship. We began the season with some holes to fill, but we developed as a team in facing our toughest opposition. It was exciting to be part of history, as the first Girls Spring Track Champions of W-H!"

Coach Kevin Black commented on the Boys Team: "Great season by a great team. I'm proud of these super athletes!"

The W-H 1998 Baseball Team finished a rebuilding season with a first round lost to Barnstable in the Division I State Tournament. This year's Varsity ended the regular season with a record of 10 and 8. Their early exit from the tournament was a disapointing one, but nonetheless, exciting. On June third they lost a close 16 to 13 battle with Barnstable. If it wasn't for the great coaching of Patrick Forbes, the loss would have been worse.

This year was a good one despite their record, and several leaders stood out. Seniors Brett Hassan and Brian Morse had several timely hits as well as Junior Jeffrey Owen. One of Whitman-Hanson's best pitchers was Junior Gregory Lozeau, who will really be a star next year. The Junior base of the team caused some losses because of inexperience, but next year this young team will flourish.

This year's Varsity didn't do as well as last year's, but hopes to make it deep into the tournament next year. With ten Juniors returning next year as Seniors, the team looks to be an experienced group of athletes. Also, several fine young players from the "J.V. Baseball Team" are coming up and hope to make the Varsity Team. The team's defense needs work but with improvements, the 1999 Varsity Baseball Team will be a well-rounded contender in the A.C.L.

The Junior Varsity Softball Team finished the year with a fairly even record. According to Coach Dan Moriarty, the girls that make up the team all play an important role in later forming a varsity team. The players rotate positions, always trying each different assignment with an enthusiastic attitude. The rotating of positions allows the coaches to see who plays best with whom and what combinations will score them the wins.

The 1998 Girls Varsity Softball team finished second in the ACL with a competitive record of wins and losses. According to Carly Muise, the most memorable win of the sesason was the second game against Marshfield. Having already been defeated by Marshfield once, and W-H not having their starting pitcher, the team worked together to resoundingly beat Marshfield.

The Varsity Team, 6 of which are freshmen and only two of which are seniors, has been dedicated and determined; their spirit has won them a place in the State Tournament, which could eventually lead to a Division I State Championship.

The 1998 Girls and Boys Tennis Teams ... had captivating seasons as organized teams here at W-H.

The W-H Boys Tennis Team concluded its 20 match season with a 5 win 15 loss record. "The team had good potential," says Captain Keith Erwin," but commitments to work and other responsibilities after school sometimes kept the starting players from attending the matches."

Matthew Ransom played 1st singles position, and Keith Erwin, Captain, played 2nd singles position. Three foreign exchange students, Maxime VanAssche, Jan Kubicka, and Carlos Vieira -Cerri were great additions to the team. Carlos made it to the quarter final round of the State Tennis Tournament at New Seabury ... a 1st for a W-H tennis player.

The future looks good for the Boys Tennis Team (coached by Mrs. Sandra Allan) next year, as younger brothers of some of this year's better players will be coming to W-H.

The Girls Tennis Team with Co-Captains Meghan Whitmore and Hilary Baker, both fourth year players, and with coach LaPierre, were ready for some action.

Meghan said about the team, "Well, since we have a fairly new team, you can't expect us to be great, but we did improve because this year we actually won a few games!" She added that the team was, "hard working, fun, easy to get along with, and more relaxed." Their 3-17 record proves the girls have shown some definite improvement. To next year's team, both Meghan and Hilary say, "Good luck girls; it can only get better! Have fun with Coach LaPierre, too!"

The 1998 W-H Boys/Girls Golf Teams have had challenging seasons. Coach Bob Belden stated about the Boys Team that this year's team was very young (13 members with only four seniors), but the team members improved greatly throughout the course of the season. He also praised the seniors in their wonderful leadership skills. The boys had a very successful season this year including shutting out the teams from Randolph and Middleboro twice with scores of 9 to 0.

The Girls Team had its share of tough times this year due to the lack of members. Coach Joseph Bombadier said, "We had a small team this year - only six participants, but the girls worked together to make the season happen." He commended Jackie Deegan for scoring the first point of the season in the meet against Dennis Yarmouth.

One major change in the season was that the W-H Girls Team practiced and played its meets at Strawberry Valley in Abington. The Boys Team played at Halifax Country Club. As previously reported, the golf teams' season would be changed from the spring season to the fall season. However, this change does not seem to be in the making for next year.

Above: Junior Tracey Anderson and Senior Elizabeth Getchell really enjoy their time together on the golf course. They usually play in the top two positions.

In her presentation of the graduates, Whitman-Hanson Regional School District's Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Irene Sherry-Kaplan, addresses the graduation crowd as to which schools the graduating Class of 1998 will be attending in the future.
